Family Acceptance Project

<http://familyproject.sfsu.edu/> fap@sfsu.edu

The Family Acceptance Project™ is a research, intervention, education and policy initiative that works to prevent health and mental health risks for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) children and youth, including suicide, homelessness and HIV – in the context of their families, cultures and faith communities. We use a research-based, culturally grounded approach to help ethnically, socially and religiously diverse families to support their LGBT children. Our team has been putting research into practice by developing an evidence-based family model of wellness, prevention and care to strengthen families and promote positive development and healthy futures for LGBT children and youth.

HiTops

21 Wiggins St, Princeton, NJ 08540

Phone: (609) 683-5155 <http://www.hitops.org>

HiTops is a health education and advocacy organization dedicated to ensuring every adolescent safe passage to adulthood by providing comprehensive sexuality education and promoting healthy relationships and supportive connections.

Desired Outcomes: Reduces rate of HIV, STIs and unplanned pregnancies. HiTops provides education, training and support for youth and adults that helps adolescents to develop health enhancing behaviors, improve decision-making, and reduce risk-taking behaviors. HiTops values prevention as a cost effective strategy that also engages youth in their own healthcare.

HiTops teaches age-appropriate, medically accurate sexual health education to reduce rates of HIV, STIs and unplanned pregnancies. Comprehensive sexuality education teaches risk avoidance through abstinence and provides risk reduction strategies to individuals who are sexually active to help them reduce their risks of infections or pregnancy.

HiTops has professional staff as well as trained peer educators who teach programs in schools, faith- and community-based organizations, juvenile justice sites, and group residential homes.

Everything HiTops does is to benefit youth, ages 11-26. HiTops trains and educates adults—parents or professionals who work with youth—on how to be supportive, trusted adults. Adults learn how to talk with young people about sensitive topics, how to create inclusive and safe environments, and how to find resources on specialized topics.

Kaleidoscope

Center For Family Services

1-800-255-4213

<https://www.facebook.com/KaleidoscopeNJ/>

Kaleidoscope is a community-based Gay-Straight Alliance. Kaleidoscope offers monthly student-led meetings in a safe, supportive environment for LGBT and allied teens to gather, socialize, organize, and help each other. Meetings are conveniently located at the Cherry Hill Public Library on the third Saturday of each month from 2pm-4pm, and Tiki Tiki Board Games in Woodbury, NJ on the first Friday of each month at 6pm.

As the only youth-centric LGBT organization in South Jersey, this center fills a void in the community for those struggling with sexuality/gender identity/expression. It will allow those attending schools without a Gay-Straight Alliance to seek support and guidance, and serve to help unify area GSAs in planning out of school events such as a GSA Forum or GSA Prom.

Kaleidoscope's mission is to empower LGBTQ and allied youth to lead healthy, productive lives. We are committed to fostering a safe and welcoming atmosphere for all people, respecting and celebrating the beautiful diversity of sexual and affectional orientations and gender identities and expressions.

Kaleidoscope strives to be a youth-led organization, encouraging teens to take leadership roles and develop communication and organizational skills that will enrich their lives as they transition into adulthood.
