New Jersey Fresh Produce for Burlington County Senior Citizens

Burlington County Freeholder Linda Hughes and the Office On Aging are working with the NJ Senior Farmer's Market Program to provide our residents with vouchers to buy locally grown produce. Residents at least 60 years old, who live in Burlington County, and are income eligible, may be able to receive vouchers to purchase locally grown fruits, vegetables and herbs from our local farmers' markets. There is no guarantee that enough vouchers will be available for all applicants. Proof of residency and age are required. Telephone the Burlington County Aging & Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) at (609) 265-5069 or 1 (877) 222-3737. The Program is only available June to September of each year, subject to funding.
