

Burlington County Board of Chosen Freeholders Sponsors

EARTH FAIR 2011

“Back to Our Roots” at Historic Smithville Park

Smithville Rd, Eastampton, NJ

Saturday, June 18 • 10:30 am to 4 pm

Environmental Fun for the Whole Family • Rain or Shine

For the Kids:

- Paper Making
- Art projects from Trash
- Musical “Made from Trash” Playground
- Magician
- Environmental Vaudeville
- Snakes & Frogs & Bugs...Oh My!!!
- Storytelling & Face Painting
- 4-H Petting Zoo

Back to our Roots Performers:

- Bad Dogz: Blue Grass
- Alvin Jacques Band: Jazz
- Capitol Singers: Gospel
- Piney Hollow Drifters: Old Timey
- John Colgan-Davis: Country Blues
- Zydeco-a-Go-Go: New Orleans/Cajun
- Queen Nur: Holla, Shout & Turnabout
- Spook Handy - Folk

Back to Our Roots:

- Native Plants
- Urban Chickens
- Backyard Composting
- Rain Barrels/Rain Gardens
- Bee Keeping & Beneficial Bugs
- R U GRN – Are you green?
- EZ 2 B GRN – Easy to be green

Throughout the Day:

- Over 100 Vendors & Exhibits
- “Sustainable Living” Tent
- Do’s and Don’ts of Recycling
- Games – batteries not required
- Walk the Trails
- Canoe the Rancocas - $15/canoe
- Meet Park’s Naturalist
- New Harmonies: American Roots Music Exhibit
- Tour Smithville Mansion - $3
- Tour Industrial Village
- Hybrid Cars

Stop & Drop

- Recycle TVs & computers
- Document Shredding
- Smith’s Woods on Railroad Ave
- Stop before or after Earth Fair
- Open 9 am – 4 pm

Special Needs Accommodations:

Two weeks advance notice required for individuals needing special accommodations.
Please call: 609-265-5858

Please Note:

Volunteers Welcome!!! call 609-265-5838

Contests!

Enter raffle to win one of two Neuton battery lawn mowers at the Fair

Free Parking & Free Admission!!!

R U Green

Are you Green?

Visit 14 “green stations” to learn what you can do to “go green.”

Green Stations:

- Backyard Composting – Compost yard and kitchen waste made easy.
- In Your Yard - Use native plants in your landscape design.
- Backyard Habitats - Create habitats for birds, butterflies and bats.
- Down the drain – Don’t let rain carry trash down the drain.
- No Butts About It – This is litter – Please butt it then bin it.
- Bottled Water Myth – Why you should use reusable bottles.
- Bring Your Own Tote (BYOT) – Reusable Tote = Less Waste!
- Buy Local – Support your local farmers.
- Open the Blinds – Let the sunshine in.
- Go Solar - let the sun dry your clothes naturally.
- Conserve Water in the Home – turn off the faucet.
- Recycling 101 – Recycling made simple in your home.
- Don’t be Idle – Walk, carpool and bike.
- Think Globally, Act locally –Take the Pledge –pick one or more things that you can do, starting today.

EARTH FAIR SCHEDULE

(Subject to change)

Back to Our Roots — Stage One

11 am – Capitol City Gospel Singers, a multi-denominational gospel group from Trenton performs sacred songs and spirituals.

Noon - Zydeco-a-Go-Go, a five-piece group specializing in Zydeco, Cajun, and New Orleans rhythm and blues takes the stage. Put on your dancing shoes.

1:30 pm - Bad Dogz, a popular Pinelands bluegrass band performs a unique blend of bluegrass and country music.

3 pm - Piney Hollow Drifters, an “old timey” band plays music in the old time tradition with old time instruments.

Back to Our Roots — Stage Two

11:30 am - John Colgan-Davis, leader of Philadelphia’s legendary Dukes of Destiny plays harmonica and sings the blues with accompaniment by guitarist Richard Ray Adler.

12:30 pm – Spook Handy tells America’s story through his own folk songs and songs by artists such as Pete Seeger and Peter, Paul and Mary.

1:30 pm – Queen Nur, a nationally-known storyteller along with Dwight Jones and Sarai Abdul-Malik present “Holla’, Shout & Turnabout,” interactive stories with audience participation using washboards, spoons and one-string buckets.

2:30 pm – Alvin Jacque Band performs New Orleans jazz.

All Day Live Animal Exhibits

Woodford Cedar Run Wildlife Refuge
Rancocas Nature Center

12:30 & 2:30 pm - Rizzo’s Reptiles
Bug Lady
4-H Petting Zoo
Alpacas

Especially for Kids

All Day – Musical Playground allows kids of all ages to play musical instruments built from recycled material.

10:30 am, 12:30 & 2:30 pm -Tunes for Spoons with Mark Rust invites visitors to make music with spoons.

11 am, 1 & 3 pm - Earth Capades environmental vaudeville group presents “Waste Reduction Production” with juggling, magic, comedy, storytelling & music.

11:30 am & 1:30 pm - The Magic of Recycling featuring Magician Bill Kerwood who keeps you laughing, learning and making a difference!

Noon & 2 pm - Grand Falloons Professor W’s Earth Science Circus takes us on a unique exploration of “our Earth.”

Noon, 1, 2 & 3 pm - Back to Our Roots Storytelling at the Gazebo featuring Mary Olgesby.

12:30, 1:30, 2:30 & 3:30 pm - Back to Our Roots Storytelling at the Gazebo featuring Dorothy Stanatis.

Guided Tours

Noon to 4 pm - Tour Historic Smithville Mansion ($3/person)

12:30 & 2:30 pm - Tour Smithville Industrial Village (Free)

All Day In the Event Tent

R U GRN? - Are you living a “green” life?

EZ 2 B GRN - Learn how easy it is “go green.”

Directions to Historic Smithville Park

From Ben Franklin Bridge:

Take Route 30. Follow signs for Route 38 East.

Continue following the directions under “Heading East on Route 38” below:

Heading East on Route 38

From Intersection of Route 541 and 38: head East on Route 38 for 2.9 miles and turn left onto Smithville Road. Travel $\frac{3}{4}$ mile and turn left at Event Parking sign.

Heading West on Route 38

From Intersection of Route 206 and Route 38: head West on Route 38, travel $\frac{3}{4}$ mile past the NJ Motor Vehicle Inspection Station and turn right onto Smithville Rd. Travel $\frac{3}{4}$ mile and turn left at Event Parking sign.

Via Route 295

Take Route 295 to Exit 47A – Mt Holly Route 541 South. Travel 2.5 miles, (pass 4 traffic lights) before 5th light for Woodlane Rd. Take jug handle to make left onto Woodlane Rd. (Route 630). Take Woodlane Rd. to 4th light (Smithville Rd.). Make right onto Smithville Rd. Take Smithville Rd. through one stop sign (blinking red light) at Powell Rd. Historic Smithville Park will be on your right. Turn right at Event Parking sign.